The Holy Qur'an

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

إِنَّا أَنْعَمْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكَافِرِينَ

فَصَلِّ لِرَبِّكَ وَانْحَرْ

لَعَلَّكَ تَمُوتُ مُشْرِكًا

1. In the name of Allāh, the Gracious, the Merciful.
2. Surely We have given thee abundance of good;
3. So pray to thy Lord, and offer sacrifice.
4. Surely, it is thy enemy who is without issue.

Hadith:

Anas relates that the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, said: Entertain no ill-will or envy nor indifference nor cut off intercourse; be servants of Allah, brethren to each other. It is not permissible for a Muslim to keep away from his brother for more than three days

(Bokhari and Muslim).

Writings of the Promised Messiah [as]:

I tell you truly that the habit of thinking ill of others is a great affliction which destroys a person's faith, flings him far away from the truth and converts his friends into enemies. In order to acquire the qualities of the righteous, it is necessary that a person should altogether shun the habit of thinking ill of others, and should he happen to fall into that attitude concerning someone else, he should seek forgiveness repeatedly and should supplicate to God Almighty that he may be safeguarded against such sinfulness and the consequences that flow from it. This habit should not be underrated. It is a dangerous disease which destroys a person very quickly.
